

How Can You Help?

The Milford Harbor Duck Race is back and better than ever! Our event is quickly approaching and we need everyone's help to make this city-wide event a success. This is a great chance to have fun and earn development at the same time. Please choose an area where you think you can help and return your form by March 15th. Thank you for investing in the future of your child's school. We can't do it without you!
